PARENT QUESTIONNAIRE - Child's Name _____

1. What activities (in or out of school) does your child enjoy most? What helps to boost his/her self-confidence?

2. What situations cause your child to experience anxiety or stress? Which activities does he/she tend to avoid?

3. Which of your child's emerging skills and traits are you most excited and pleased about? What do you see as particular strengths?

4. Are there aspects of physical, social, emotional, or academic development that are coming along differently than you had expected? Please let us know if your child has had any professional evaluations or testing, including the date and name of the evaluator.

Young Children's Center For The Arts provides its community with an inclusion program that warmly embraces each and every young child, regardless of race, religion, ethnicity, and development.

To ensure an appropriate educational and social preschool experience, YCCA reserves the right to request evaluations and/or documentation of past evaluations for children exhibiting "at risk" social, emotional, behavioral and/or educational development.
